THE BEER HUNTER

A very warm welcome to our visitors tonight from Southend Manor.

Our visit there earlier in the season included the unexpected discovery of the Thames Estuary Automobile Club bar a few minutes away from the ground on the seafront - a little gem with several fine beers and a warm welcome to non-members.

Our next away trip is another visit to Sawbridgeworth, which has two pubs in the 2015 CAMRA Good Beer Guide (the ideal Christmas present for your beer-loving relatives!).

In London Road, the Gate is a lively hostelry with a strong sporting theme offering up to six beers, usually including several from the Sawbridgeworth Brewery which is located at the back of the pub.

In Bell Street you'll find the Old Bell, a friendly and attractive 16th century timber-framed former coaching inn which is popular with locals. The cosy main bar has exposed beams and an open fire, while another bar serves as the dining area.

Beers on offer here are Adnams Bitter and Woodforde's Wherry plus guests.

Following that excursion into the country, our next away trip is the short hop to Tower Hamlets. The CAMRA Whatpub website (www.whatpub.com) lists several pubs in the vicinity, starting with the Crown in Commercial Road whose beers alternate between Fullers London Pride and Sharp's Doom Bar.

Not far away is a favourite of the Beer Hunter and his lady assistant, the Queens Head in Flamborough Street (just across from Limehouse station).

This lovely little street-corner local is a Grade 2 listed building in a conservation area, and serves a good drop of Youngs.

We have heard disturbing rumours that it could be under threat, so visit it while you can.

Lastly there's the 5B Urban Bar in Three Colt Street near West Ferry, which sounds frightful but is in fact the Five Bells under a pointlessly trendy new name (why do pub-owners do this sort of thing...?).

This has two changing guest beers, and was a decent boozier when the Beer Hunter last called in some years ago, so it's worth a look in to see if it's still better than its silly new monicker suggests.

VETERANS

On Sunday our veterans faced unbeaten Hoodwood in a Barnet League match, and took the game to the team in second place by going in front after just 5 minutes. Berk Emul cut in and laid the ball to Ferhat Erdogan whose shot was deflected past the visiting keeper.

Hoodwood went in search of an equaliser and when Abs Asname was judged to have committed a foul they were awarded a penalty, but this was well saved by Hussein Gosutok. The visitors were not to be denied and pulled level on 12 minutes with a fine finish. The rest of the half was closely fought but saw no further goals.

After the break Forest took the lead again when a quick breakaway found Suat Demirel just inside the Hoodwood half and he ran on to score.

Hoodwood were level within a minute when Gozutok fouled their forward and this time the spot kick was converted.

There was little between the sides, but Hoodwood went in front with another penalty following a foul by Besir Arasan, and a handball in the last minute gave the visitors their 4th spot kick of the afternoon which they converted for a 4-2 victory.

The Vets are now without a fixture until 4th January when they entertain Old Elizabethans at Wadham Lodge, kick-off 12.00.

If you want to see a group of guys enjoying their football why not come and support our Veterans team.

ON THE ROAD

Our next away fixture is on Tuesday 16th December when we visit Sawbridgeworth Town in the League Cup, kick-off 7.45. Unlike our two previous meetings this game has to produce a winner.

Sawbridgeworth Town play at Crofters End, Sawbridgeworth, CM21 0DE.

By Road

Make your way to the M11 northbound and exit at junction 7 (Harlow) and join the A414. Stay on the A414 for about 3 ¼ miles and then join the A1184 (Cambridge Road) for about 2 miles to Sawbridgeworth. At mini-roundabout turn left into West Street and then first right into Crofters. The ground is at the end. It's about 20 miles from Wadham Lodge.

By Public Transport

From Walthamstow Central take the Victoria Line to Tottenham Hale and then Greater Anglia service (towards Bishops Stortford) to Sawbridgeworth. Turn right from the station along Station Road. Straight on at mini-roundabout into West Street, then right into Crofters. It's about a 20 minute walk from the station.

Then on Saturday 20th December we visit Tower Hamlets in the Essex Senior League, kick-off 3.00pm.

Tower Hamlets play at Mile End Stadium, Rhodeswell Road, E14 7TW.

By Road

Make your way to the A12 (southbound) towards Blackwall Tunnel. Leave the A12 just past Bromley-by-Bow Station and join the B140 (Devas Street). This becomes St Pauls Way and the ground is on the right. It's about 11 miles from Wadham Lodge.

By Public Transport

Make your way to the Central Line and alight at Mile End. Turn into Burdett Road and the ground is on the right. It's about 20 minutes walk from the station.
