THE BEER HUNTER

A very warm welcome to our visitors today, Sporting Bengal Utd. Tuesday night's game will be a hard act to follow!

Our next away trip is another visit to Sawbridgeworth, which has two pubs in the 2015 CAMRA Good Beer Guide (the ideal Christmas present for your beer-loving relatives!).

In London Road, the Gate is a lively hostelry with a strong sporting theme offering up to six beers, usually including several from the Sawbridgeworth Brewery which is located at the back of the pub.

In Bell Street you'll find the Old Bell, a friendly and attractive 16th century timber-framed former coaching inn which is popular with locals. The cosy main bar has exposed beams and an open fire, while another bar serves as the dining area.

Beers on offer here are Adnams Bitter and Woodforde's Wherry plus guests.

Following that excursion into the country, our next away trip is the short hop to Tower Hamlets. The CAMRA Whatpub website (www.whatpub.com) lists several pubs in the vicinity, starting with the Crown in Commercial Road whose beers alternate between Fullers London Pride and Sharp's Doom Bar.

Not far away is a favourite of the Beer Hunter and his lady assistant, the Queens Head in Flamborough Street (just across from Limehouse station).

This lovely little street-corner local is a Grade 2 listed building in a conservation area, and serves a good drop of Youngs.

We have heard disturbing rumours that it could be under threat, so visit it while you can.

Lastly there's the 5B Urban Bar in Three Colt Street near West Ferry, which sounds frightful but is in fact the Five Bells under a pointlessly trendy new name (why do pub-owners do this sort of thing...?).

This has two changing guest beers, and was a decent boozier when the Beer Hunter last called in some years ago, so it's worth a look in to see if it's still better than its silly new monicker suggests.

THE TREE SURGEON

Today we entertain Sporting Bengal, who, sadly for them, are stuck at the bottom of the table, already a few points adrift of the clubs above them.

We certainly can sympathise, given our record in the Isthmian League last season, but, we cannot allow ourselves the luxury of our team feeling sorry for them on the pitch as we need to build on the exceptional result and especially, first half performance, from last Tuesday, when we finally realised our full attacking potential and simply blew Southend Manor away, by the break.

Two strikers, Ofori and Traore, both got hat tricks and surprisingly, our leading scorer, Agua, drew a blank.

Even in the days of Leyton - Wingate in the eighties, with George Wakeling in charge and we were putting ten goals past Horsham and in the seventies when John Harris's Leyton side scored nine against Wingate, we were never seven goals to the good at half time, so, that was some achievement for our lads.

On paper, today, it seems a walk in the park, but, things don't work out like that in football.

Firstly, our visitors today, will not want to be on the end of a score line like Tuesday and they will be keen to get some points under their belt as well

Secondly, when we played Greenhouse London a few games ago, we came unstuck to a side that had previously been struggling, so we have to guard against over confidence on our part - looking at League tables can sometimes be the worst thing for a club in our League position to do.

Finally, in the past, when our side has had a massive win, it often seems we have a hangover in the next game, where we struggle to get going.

I hope Turgut manages to keep them fired up for today, so we see another exhilarating performances.

I certainly miss seeing the side, very much, at the moment, as we seem to be full of attacking adventure and not to mention goals.

Our defence could be tighter, but, I would not want us to sacrifice our attacking principals, for the sake of clean sheets, if only for the fact that, when we do try and play more defensively, it does not work (with the exception of our away win against FC Romania)

Hope we can pick up from where we left off on Tuesday, at least that will keep FG busy and his Twitter finger, constantly on the go.

ON THE ROAD

Our next away fixture is on Tuesday 16th December when we visit Sawbridgeworth Town in the League Cup, kick-off 7.45. Unlike our two previous meetings this game has to produce a winner.

Sawbridgeworth Town play at Crofters End, Sawbridgeworth, CM21 0DE.

By Road

Make your way to the M11 northbound and exit at junction 7 (Harlow) and join the A414. Stay on the A414 for about 3 ¼ miles and then join the A1184 (Cambridge Road) for about 2 miles to Sawbridgeworth. At mini-roundabout turn left into West Street and then first right into Crofters. The ground is at the end. It's about 20 miles from Wadham Lodge.

By Public Transport

From Walthamstow Central take the Victoria Line to Tottenham Hale and then Greater Anglia service (towards Bishops Stortford) to Sawbridgeworth. Turn right from the station along Station Road. Straight on at mini-roundabout into West Street, then right into Crofters. It's about a 20 minute walk from the station.

Then on Saturday 20th December we visit Tower Hamlets in the Essex Senior League, kick-off 3.00pm.

Tower Hamlets play at Mile End Stadium, Rhodeswell Road, E14 7TW.

By Road

Make your way to the A12 (southbound) towards Blackwall Tunnel. Leave the A12 just past Bromley-by-Bow Station and join the B140 (Devas Street). This becomes St Pauls Way and the ground is on the right. It's about 11 miles from Wadham Lodge.

By Public Transport

Make your way to the Central Line and alight at Mile End. Turn into Burdett Road and the ground is on the right. It's about 20 minutes walk from the station.
